

Fresno Chaffee Zoo

Teen LEADERS

Lead by Educating with Activities and Demonstrations on the Environment, Resources and Sciences

"It was a truly unique experience. I loved that we all made a difference in cleaning up such an important natural habitat."

~Dilpreet, Teen LEADER Age 16

Teen LEADERS are volunteers age 14-18 who interact with Zoo guests facilitating water-related games and activities and suggesting basic actions to help conserve and protect fresh water and ocean habitats.

- Meet & work with awesome new friends from around the Central Valley!
- Build positive communication skills & learn how to contribute to constructive workplace dynamics
- Receive environmental education and training on ocean and local habitats
- River clean up field trip with San Joaquin River Stewardship Project
- Coastal exploration field trip to Monterey Bay
- Teens commit 20 hours of volunteer time from June-September
- ZERO COST to teen volunteers!
- Join and MAKE A DIFFERENCE in conserving critical ocean and local habitats!

"I had such an amazing day watching every reaction that the children and adults had to our very positive message of water conservation."

~Wendy, Teen LEADER Age 15

"Today's canoeing experience was a blast. Not only did we get to be immersed in a natural habitat and experience it first-hand but we also gained valuable team building and leadership skills."

~Jared, Teen LEADER Age 16
